Working with Little League, LexisNexis is committed to delivering comprehensive employee and volunteer background screening services to help protect our nation's vulnerable populations. LexisNexis delivers affordable access to public record databases for the benefit of service organizations and their constituents as part of our corporate vision to create a safer and more secure society through the responsible use of information. The LexisNexis National Criminal File database contains more than 270 million records including criminal and sex offender registry records covering 50 states, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the District of Columbia. (Several states only provide access to historical sex offender registry record data). As a result of these states only having historical data available, the LexisNexis National Criminal File database no longer meets the minimum requirements of the Little League regulations. Visit https://littleleague.custhelp.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/1797 to access a list of the states/data covered.

More Information on the topic of background screening

Q: Who in the local league should be responsible to process the background check information?

A: Little League International recommends the board of directors appoint the local league president and two other individuals to handle the background checks. These individuals may be from the board or individuals outside the board. For instance, the board of directors may appoint individuals who have significant professional background in this area, such as law enforcement officers or individuals with a legal background.

Q: What type of offenses are we screening for when we conduct a background check?

A: Local leagues are conducting a nation-wide criminal background check, that includes sex offender registries from all 50 states. (please note: historical data may only be available in some states) An individual who has been convicted or pled guilty to charges involving or against a minor, no matter when the offense occurred, must not be permitted to work or volunteer.

Q: How do volunteers get copies of their background report?

A: Volunteers may receive a copy of their full report by contacting LexisNexis at 866-312-8075. If a negative record is reported on a volunteer's background report, they will automatically receive a copy via U.S. Mail. If a volunteer wants to dispute a criminal record associated with their report, they may call the LexisNexis Consumer Disclosure team at 800-845-6004. Local Little League will supply the volunteer with a copy of the report if they intend to take adverse action based on the information in the background report.
